There's nothing quite like seeing your favorite artist perform in concert. The atmosphere is electrifying and the energy is unreal. Concerts are experiences, and like any experience they deserve to be enjoyed at maximum potential, which is why Ak-Chin Pavilion and Live Nation have a way for you to turn up the volume on your concerts this summer. The Premium Seating Program offered at the Phoenix venue is the most ideal way to kick back and revel in every musical moment. From the second you pull up to the venue, to long after the show has ended, you can enjoy true VIP treatment.

Not only will you get treated like a star, but your car will also get the luxury treatment with VIP parking that is as close to the venue as you can get. Step out of your car onto a sweeping red carpet that leads you and your friends to your own VIP entrance. Quickly slip into the venue and make your way to the Lexus VIP Club, a private, secluded area with its own private wrap-around bar, private restrooms, lounge area and a spot for photo opportunities. The spacious, crowd-free area also includes complimentary catering of delicious eats and is complete with a stage for local acts and DJs that serves to be the post-concert hang out spot where the after party is as good as the pre-party.

When its time to head to your seats, make your way to the center of the venue, where the VIP boxes are located. Situated between the lower and upper sections of seating, with a pathway leading straight to your seats, there is no climbing over strangers mid-concert or counting rows as you climb flights of stairs. The boxes are sectioned off and offered as four-, six- and 12-seat boxes. With individual chairs, room to stretch out and the best views at the venue—even while seated—there is no better way to attend a concert. You can even move your chair around, so there's no shouting at your friend whose four seats down. The cherry-on-top of the VIP treatment is that each box includes your own server, so you never have to wait in long concession stand lines while the show goes on without you.

With the same great seat for every show throughout the season, the boxes are perfect for companies who want to entertain clients or reward employees, or ideal for friends and families who simply want to enjoy a fun show. In addition to boxes, individual seats are also available to purchase as part of the premium seat plan. And the fun doesn't stop there; season ticket holders also receive complimentary ticket offers to Arizona sports teams and more. Ticket holders also have the option to purchase premium seats to any Live Nation show throughout the Phoenix area. With payment options and discounted prices per ticket, there's no reason to not snag your spot now, before the show ends.
